SHIPPING NEWS

The Mauna Kea had an enjoyable run to the islands last week, returning at the usual hour this morning. On the outward trip moderate trades and sea were experienced and on the homeward run much the same conditions were met with, excepting that a northeast swell prevailed which freshened up considerably crossing the channel. The trip was without incident, but it was reported by passengers embarking from Mahukona that a severe shock of earthquake was felt there. On the outward trip the Mauna Kea reported the Kauai at Hilo alongside the Enterprise and the Kaulani at Papaikou. On the return trip the Kauai was at Hilo still, but the Kaulani was at Honolulu and the Helene at Oahu. The Maui was passed between Oahu and Lahaina, and the Mikahala was at the latter port. The steamer Enterprise was at Hilo, having arrived on Tuesday. She sails tomorrow morning for Mahukona, and thence to San Francisco direct. The schooner Borealis will sail from Hilo on Wednesday morning for the coast in ballast. The W. H. Marston will sail on the same day for Redondo with railroad ties.

The Mauna Kea brought 249 sheep to port, three crates of chickens, one horse, 1578 pieces of Ohia lumber, 32 cords of C. wood, and various sundries.

The Matson liner Hilsonian left shortly after ten o'clock this morning with a cargo including bananas and pineapples. Among the few passengers departing are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coulter. Mr. Coulter is the well-known marine artist of San Francisco, and he has been at work on sketches preparing for a picture of Diamond Head and portion of Waikiki beach.

Mr. E. A. Mott-Smith, president of the Board of Health, returned this morning by the Mauna Kea from a trip to Molokai.

Two deer were captured the day before yesterday, swimming in the open sea, beyond the reef at Waikiki. How they got so far out is a puzzle. Japanese fishermen found them, and caught them, and took them to Kapio-lani park. It is supposed that they were deer which had escaped from Prince Kuhio's herd of Molokai deer.

NEW MYRTLE OFFICERS.

Another series of races for the Pearl class of the Honolulu Yacht Club will be arranged very shortly as soon as the two boats now in the course of construction are completed. A meeting was held at the Myrtle Clubhouse yesterday at which the following officers were elected:—President, H. Bailey; Commodore, Corbellus Sullivan; Regatta Committee, J. McVeigh, Columbus Sims, E. Schieber; and Entertainment Committee, George Sims, L. Ferguson, and K. Smith.
